Isten hozott,

Hailing from Europe, these nature spirits are tiny. They frequently wear green or brown and are said to have turned up noses and red hair when “seen” psychically.

They are known for their speed, their action and for usually being attached to one family and the home of the family.

Pixies can bring joy, luck, prosperity, protection and fun. They are hard working, joyous and energetic. On the other side, they can be mischievous.

These spirits of nature like to dance and tumble around shadows and edges of streams. These spirits love animals, trees, water and everything connected with nature.

Sometimes you can “hear” the sound of bells when they are around.

You can call on these spirits to enter your home and help you. You need to do so with a clear and positive heart. Keep your home orderly to make it inviting. Pixies do not like clutter.

Put some things of nature in your home. Ex: small gemstones, flowers, plants, sounds of nature or animal sounds found on CD's or DVD's. They love bell sounds.

You can call on them by placing a small bowl of sugar, honey or something sweet in your home. The kitchen seems to be the best placement. Focus your intent on inviting them to stay. You can do this at any time, but the best times are at a full moon or new moon.

Say:

“I call on you Pixies,
To come and stay,
I offer you gifts,
To come and play.

I call on you Pixies,
I honor your spirits,
Come to my dwelling,
So luck will be in it.”

Do so for 7 days in a row. Remember to thank them for coming.

You can request help with prosperity, protection, love, or any other area of your choice. Remember to offer a small present of nature each time you make a request. Milk and honey mixed is also good. Leave the gift out until it “feels” like the Pixies are done with it.

Remember to have fun, respect their spirits and have a Magickal day.
