“You Receive What You Believe”

Isten hozott,

What comes into your life is what you believe can or can't happen.

People who live in villages where it is the norm to live past 100 years of age, usually live that amount of time or more. Why? Because they know this happens and therefore expect it to happen. Even if they move away to a different area, their belief that this is normal will go with them.

Have you ever seen the cartoonist drawing of a little old lady peeking under her bed to see if anyone is there? If someone did that repeatedly in life, eventually there would be someone under the bed. What you expect, you get.

People who grew up with wealth around them usually make a lot of money, because they know it is possible and expect it to be so. There's a saying –“the rich get richer”-and they do because of this aspect in their lives. They are not stressed about what if...(things don't work out).

You have to set a goal, work toward it and expect it. If it does not work the first time, stay with it. Eventually it will happen.

The light bulb was not invented on the first try!

Have you noticed that any time there is a Record that is broken with athletes , which took years, right after the event more people can do it? That is because now people know it can be done. What you believe, you can do.

Do not allow yourself to have limited vision. Be the visionary.

Even when you have set-backs, remember Divine Power is with you. Guiding you. He wants you to do better. Each set-back is a learning and brings you closer to your goal.

When others around you are negative, you might feel pulled in. Well, stop that! Know Divine Power has your back. You can affect your life and the lives of those coming after you to do better.

Exercise

- List 3 goals.
- List what actions you can take right now toward them.
- Next, move on them.

Prayer To Receive What You Believe

© 2010 Maria D'Andrea

Divine Power is with me and clears the Path before me.
Before I even think of it, Divine Power prepares the Path for me.
I now create in my life (...fill in purpose...) with joy and thanks.
I know Divine Power and I can do this.
As I Believe, So I Shall Receive.
So Be It.
